

INWES-APNN-ICWSTEM

INTERNATIONAL CONFERENCE OF WOMEN IN SCIENCE, TECHNOLOGY, ENGINEERING AND MATHEMATICS AND
MEETING OF ASIA-PACIFIC NATIONS NETWORK

JUNE 29-JULY 1, 2023

LIBRARY, NATIONAL UNIVERSITY OF MONGOLIA

APNN 2023
SDG - WOMEN
PARTICIPATION

Biography

Dr. Nyamaa Galiimaa is Professor of Humanities, at Mongolian University of Science and Technology. She obtained her undergraduate degree in History (1987) from Irkutsk State University in Irkutsk, SU (RF) under tutelage of the Professor Dyatlov V.I. After she was appointed to the Department of Social Science at Mongolian Agricultural university (1987) as a lecturer. Since 1991, she has been working to the Department of Humanities at MUST. Galiimaa received her Ph.D. in history from the Mongolian National University at Ulaanbaatar, Mongolia under supervision of the Academician Boldbaatar. She was promoted to Professor in 2009. She had worked to the Kobe Dai Gakuing university as a visiting professor between September 1998 to March 1999.

Galiimaa has made over 100 research papers and articles and coauthors 9 textbooks and 4 monographies.

Current research of Galiimaa had emphasizes the international and domestic migration of Mongols and cultural tourism.